OPEN CALL

for Vienna-based dancers and performers with diverse professional, cultural and social backgrounds for a creation by Adrienn Hód and HODWORKS

For their upcoming creation at WUK performing arts, choreographer Adrienn Hód and the company HODWORKS are looking for dancers and performers who are based in/around Vienna with diverse professional, cultural and social backgrounds.

HODWORKS is an internationally working contemporary dance company whose working method and performances are based on structured improvisation and experimental body research guided by Adrienn Hód. For Hód the theatre is a safe space where the topics raised and the dialogues about them can be explored in their full depth and made artistically accessible.

We are looking for dancers and performers with a performing history and interest in body and movement research.

The working period is planned from the middle of March to the beginning of May 2024 and will take place in Vienna (maybe partly in Budapest), with performances in Vienna (at WUK performing arts) and Budapest (at Trafó).

Prior to the rehearsal process, we will invite a selection of applicants to a workshop, during which we can meet and connect, explore each other's performing interests and where they can experience the working methods of the company. The workshop will take place in Vienna (at Liquid Loft Studios) from October 2nd to 4th 2023, 10 am - 4 pm, and is free of charge.

Dancers and performers should be available for the entire period of the workshop and the working process, exceptions can be discussed.

Participation in the rehearsal process and the performances will be fully paid, although accommodation and travel will not be covered in Vienna.

The call is open to all ages & genders.

To apply, please send:

- a CV with picture
- a video showreel (if you have one)
- a short video (can be low-tech, max. 10 minutes) where you introduce yourself and explain what are you intrigued by as a performer at the moment, what are your creative interests and aspirations

until August 31st 2023 to hodworksvienna@gmail.com

If you have any questions and would like to know more about the project in general, please also address dramaturg Ármin Szabó-Székely, szaboszekely@gmail.com
